5.3.2 Presence of Student Council and its activities for institutional development and student welfare

Response:

Y.B.N. University, Ranchi, has institutionalized a Student Council that plays a crucial role in fostering leadership, enhancing student welfare, and contributing to the university's overall development. The council organizes various activities that streamline student operations, amplify student voices, and promote a vibrant campus life, aligning with the university's goal of developing responsible, leadership oriented students.

The Student Council is composed of elected representatives from various faculties and year groups, ensuring diverse academic representation. It includes positions such as President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, and Class Representatives. Each member has specific responsibilities that contribute to academic and extracurricular development. The President and Vice President coordinate major events, while the Secretary and Treasurer manage logistics and finances. Class Representatives bridge communication between students and the council

Key objectives include developing leadership qualities, streamlining student activities, and ensuring student welfare. The council provides opportunities for students to take on leadership roles, enhancing skills like team management, public speaking, and conflict resolution. It fosters a culture of democratic participation by encouraging debates, decision-making, and collaboration.

The Student Council also organizes academic seminars, cultural events, sports activities, and student clubs, ensuring that students' voices are heard through surveys and feedback sessions. These activities provide a platform for students to express their concerns, which are communicated to the university authorities. This ensures a student-centric approach to institutional development.

Cultural events like annual fests, talent shows, and inter-college competitions promote creativity and cultural exchange. The council also facilitates student participation in regional, national, and international competitions, helping them gain exposure to various extracurricular opportunities.

The council is actively involved in student welfare initiatives, managing facilities like the student mess, transportation, and accommodation. It works closely with the administration to maintain these facilities and ensures they meet students' needs. The mess committee, overseen by the council, ensures nutritious and hygienic meals at affordable prices by gathering student feedback and making necessary improvements.

Additionally, the council leads charitable initiatives such as donation drives and outreach programs to support underprivileged communities. These activities foster social responsibility and empathy among students.

The Student Council's impact is evident in improved student engagement, enhanced leadership skills, and a stronger sense of community. It increases student satisfaction by providing a platform for student voices and addressing their concerns. Students also gain practical experience in leadership, event

Respected Sir,

With due respect, I, Dr. Swati Kumar, Faculty Coordinator of the Tea Club, YBN University, on behalf of the club, kindly seek your permission to organize a program on 21st May 2024 within the university campus.

The purpose of this program is to engage students in creative and educational activities related to tea culture, brewing techniques, and its significance across various traditions. It aims to provide a platform for students to explore the art of tea appreciation while fostering discussions on its history, benefits, and sustainability. The event will include a tea-tasting session, a brewing workshop, and an interactive discussion on tea culture.

Details of the Program:

- Date: 21st May 2024
- Time: 11:00AM to 1:00 PM
- Venue: YBN University Campus, Seminar Hall
- Organized by: Tea Club
- Participants: Students and faculty members from various departments

We assure you that all necessary precautions and university guidelines will be followed during the event. The club will take full responsibility for organizing and managing the program effectively.

We kindly request you to grant us permission to conduct this event and support our initiative to promote student engagement and cultural awareness through tea appreciation.

Thanking you in anticipation.

Yours sincerely,

Tea Club – YBN University

Objectives:

- Create a relaxed, informal environment where students can engage in thoughtful conversations on a wide range of topics — from current affairs and politics to philosophy, culture, and personal experiences.
- Use tea as a cultural symbol to bridge differences and explore common ground.
- Promote mental well-being through meaningful social interaction.

Club Structure:

- Patron: Dean of Academics or designated senior official.
- Faculty Coordinator: A nominated faculty member from any department.
- Student Executive Body:
  - President
  - Vice President
  - Secretary
  - Joint Secretary
  - Treasurer
  - Event Coordinator
  - Media & Promotion Officer*(Offices to be filled via nomination or election once per academic year.)*

Activities:

1. Open Discussion Circles

- Pick a weekly theme (e.g. “India-Pakistan Peace”, “Digital Media and Conflict”, “Mental Health & Campus Life”).
- Encourage students to share their views in a moderated, respectful setting.

2. Book & Article Discussions

- Choose a short reading (essay, news piece, or poem) to discuss over tea.
- Example: “Curfewed Night” by Basharat Peer (Kashmir memoir), or an op-ed on regional conflict.

3. Guest Speaker Sessions

- Invite professors, journalists, authors, or diplomats to lead a casual conversation.
- Great for topics like conflict resolution, international relations, or tea and trade history.

4. Debate or Role-Play Simulations

- Organize debates on issues like “Was the 2025 India-Pakistan war avoidable?”
- Try UN-style simulations with students representing countries or interest groups.

5. Culture & Tea Evenings

- Showcase music, poetry, and traditional attire from countries associated with that week’s tea.

Subject: Request for Permission to Organize a Program under Tea Club on 24th May 2025

Respected Sir,

With due respect, I, Dr. Swati Kumar, Faculty Coordinator of the Tea Club, YBN University, on behalf of the club, kindly seek your permission to organize a program on 24th May 2025 within the university campus. The purpose of this program is to engage students in creative and educational activities related to tea culture, brewing techniques, and its significance across various traditions. It aims to provide a platform for students to explore the art of tea appreciation while fostering discussions on its history, benefits, and sustainability. The event will include a tea-tasting session, a brewing workshop, and an interactive discussion on the latest topic about India Pakistan War 2025.

Details of the Program:

- Date: 24th May 2025
- Time: 11:00AM to 1:00 PM
- Venue: YBN University Campus, Seminar Hall
- Organized by: Tea Club
- Participants: Students and faculty members from various departments

We assure you that all necessary precautions and university guidelines will be followed during the event. The club will take full responsibility for organizing and managing the program effectively.

We kindly request you to grant us permission to conduct this event and support our initiative to promote student engagement and cultural awareness through tea appreciation.

Thanking you in anticipation.

Yours sincerely,

Subject: Invitation to be the Chief Speaker for World Environment Day Webinar on 5th June

Respected Sir,

Greetings from the Eco Club of YBNU

On the occasion of World Environment Day, we are pleased to organize a special webinar on 5th June at 11:00 a.m. onwards, focused on this year's theme: "Beating the Plastic Pollution."

It gives us immense pleasure to cordially invite you to grace the occasion as the Chief Speaker. Your vast knowledge and commitment to environmental conservation would provide great insights and inspiration to our students and participants.

The webinar will be conducted on a virtual platform, and the meeting link along with other necessary details will be shared in due course. Your presence would greatly enrich the session and strengthen our initiative to raise awareness for a greener future.

We sincerely hope you will accept our invitation and honor us with your presence.

Looking forward to your positive response.
