6.1.2 Effective leadership is reflected in various institutional practices such as decentralisation and participative management, etc.

Response:

YBN University, Ranchi, established in 2017, has grown to offer diploma, UG, PG, and Ph.D. programs across various disciplines such as Arts, Science, Commerce, Management, Law, Pharmacy, Nursing, Education, Physiotherapy, Paramedical, BHMS, and Agriculture. The university is committed to the prosperity and development of tribal communities through initiatives in social responsibility, outreach medical camps, education, health services, and awareness. This commitment is supported by the leadership, which ensures decentralized and participative management in governance and operations.

Board of Management

The Board of Management is the university's apex decision-making body, responsible for establishing strategic goals and policies aligned with its mission and vision. It facilitates a participative approach, including representatives from various academic and administrative divisions, ensuring collective decision-making.

Academic Council

The Academic Council oversees the university's academic direction and integrity. It ensures curricula are regularly updated to meet evolving professional and industrial needs. Faculty, department heads, and external experts collaborate in the council, ensuring that diverse perspectives shape the academic framework.

Faculties and Board of Studies

Each faculty operates under a Board of Studies (BoS), which designs, revises, and implements academic programs. Faculty members and subject experts collaborate to make informed decisions on course structures, syllabi, and evaluations. This decentralized system allows faculties to lead their departments effectively.

Board of Research

The Board of Research promotes research and innovation, supporting research scholars and faculty by identifying emerging study areas and facilitating interdisciplinary research. By decentralizing research activities, the university ensures efficient resource use and encourages individual contributions.

Admission and Examination Process

Admission and examination processes are decentralized, with faculty and administrative staff input to ensure fairness and inclusivity. Faculty members design examination patterns, while administrative teams handle logistics, creating a collaborative framework for these processes.

Gazzate Notification No. 505, Dated 17 July 2017

As per Section 2(f) of UGC Act. 1956

Academic Administration

Academic administration at YBN University is led by effective coordination among departments, faculties, and administrative units. Departments make decisions regarding faculty recruitment, student engagement, and academic initiatives, fostering accountability and aligning with institutional goals.

Office and Financial Administration

Office Administration ensures the university runs smoothly through decentralized responsibilities. Administrative officers work closely with department heads to facilitate collaborative decision-making. Financial Administration involves stakeholders in budgeting, allocation, and fund utilization, ensuring transparency and efficient resource use.

Case Study on Decentralization and Participative Management

A key example of decentralization is the university's tribal outreach programs. Medical outreach camps in tribal regions were planned and executed by faculty from medical, paramedical, and nursing departments, with logistical support from administrative staff. Similarly, the Education and Literature Campaign involved faculty from Arts and Education departments to promote literacy in tribal communities.

The Annual Research Symposium exemplifies participative management, bringing together researchers, students, and faculty to plan and execute the event collaboratively, fostering interdisciplinary dialogue and equal representation across disciplines.

Subject: Request to relieve from the post of chairperson as well as Nodal Officer

Respected sir,

It is with sincere regret that I am obliged to tender my relieving from the post of Chairperson, Women's Grievance Redressal Committee (W.G.R.C) and Nodal officer of Unnat Bharat Abhiyan (UBA) from YBN University Ranchi.

As a Dean Students Welfare, I am already chairperson of Eleven (11) committees running for student's section. I find it well high impossible to continue as an active member of both the prestigious committee (WGRC & Nodal officer of UBA)

Therefore, I request you to kindly consider and relieved me from both the prestigious post.

Thanking you.
