7.1.9

Sensitization of students and employees of the institution to the constitutional obligations: values, rights, duties and responsibilities of citizens

Response:

YBN University, Ranchi, is committed to fostering a strong sense of civic responsibility and constitutional awareness among its students and employees. To meet the requirements of NAAC criterion 7.1.9, the university has implemented several initiatives to sensitize its community to the values, rights, duties, and responsibilities enshrined in the Indian Constitution.

Understanding the Constitutional Framework

Workshops and Seminars:

- The university organizes regular workshops and seminars conducted by legal experts and constitutional scholars to provide in-depth insights into the Constitution.
- These sessions cover topics such as the Preamble, Fundamental Rights, Fundamental Duties, Directive Principles of State Policy, and the structure of the Indian government.

Interactive Sessions:

- Interactive sessions, such as quizzes, debates, and role-plays, are conducted to engage students and employees in a lively and participatory manner.
- These sessions encourage critical thinking and analysis of constitutional provisions.

Online Resources:

- The university provides access to online resources, including e-books, articles, and videos, on constitutional law and governance.
- These resources can be accessed by students and employees at their convenience.

Promoting Constitutional Values

Value-Based Education:

- The university integrates constitutional values into the curriculum of various courses, including history, political science, and law.
- This helps students understand the historical context of the Constitution and its relevance to contemporary issues.
- Guest lectures by eminent personalities are organized to inspire students and employees to uphold constitutional values.
