One-day workshop on LSRW Skills in English Language was successfully conducted on 15th February 2025. The workshop aimed to enhance the Listening, Speaking, Reading, and Writing (LSRW) skills of participants, providing valuable insights and practical strategies for improving English proficiency.

The workshop commenced with welcome address by Dr. Arti Gupta, Dean Students Welfare followed by the Vice-Chancellor and the Registrar, who emphasized the importance of mastering LSRW skills in today's academic and professional world. The eminent speakers were honoured and felicitated.

Sessions by Resource Persons

1. Mr. Saurav Ghosal : He conducted an interactive session on Listening and Speaking Skills, demonstrating techniques to improve active listening and confident speaking. Through engaging activities and real-life examples, he guided participants on pronunciation, intonation, and fluency enhancement.

2. Mrs. Rimpi Roy : She led a session on Reading and Writing Skills, focusing on comprehension strategies, vocabulary building, and effective writing techniques. She provided hands-on exercises to improve reading speed, writing coherence, and grammatical accuracy.

The workshop concluded with a Vote of Thanks delivered by the Dr. Arti Gupta, Dean Students Welfare, who also played a crucial role in coordinating this event. The DSW expressed gratitude to the resource persons, university administration, and participants for their enthusiastic involvement.

The workshop was highly informative and well-received by the participants.
